Glen Clova

Weddings at Glen Clova Hotel

Introduction

Whether you are planning a small intimate affair or large gathering with family and friends, Glen Clova Hotel is the perfect location for your perfect day.

With Clova Kirk only 100 yards from the hotel it is the perfect intimate venue for saying 'I do'. The kirk is non-denominational so you can have a traditional or a humanist service. The kirk can accommodate around 120 guests.

Alternatively, a registrar or humanist service could also be conducted in the hotel, and in our Loch Wharral Suite we would be able to accommodate 50 people for the service. We also have the facility to offer weddings in our marquee which would be suitable for a ceremony from 50 to 100.

One final option is that you could also get married outside, however please bear in mind the Scottish weather isn't always that predictable!

Minimum numbers

(Applicable from the first weekend in April to last weekend in October)

A weekend throughout the summer is still the most popular time to get married at Glen Clova and therefore we require a minimum of 70-day guests from the first weekend in April to last weekend in October. The maximum number we can take at Glen Clova is 120 inclusive of evening guests.

Wedding Guest accommodation

On confirmation of your wedding all 18 hotel & steading bedrooms for up to 42 persons will be reserved for you and your guests for the night before and the night of your wedding. These are not included in the wedding packages or estimates we provide unless specifically asked to include and cost accordingly.

Over and above the hotel we have a further 9 Self Catering Luxury Lodges and 3 Self Catering houses which are let for short breaks or week-long breaks all of which will have to be booked separately with the required deposits, please check our web site www.clova.com for a breakdown of prices.

Please note that all of our lodges & houses are fully self-catering, so breakfast will not be included for the guests staying in the lodge accommodation, however with prior arrangement guests can be accommodated for breakfast within the hotel where an additional charge will be applicable.
